

Eimear Crotty
Senior Site
Reliability Engineer

What option subjects did you choose to Leaving Cert?
Irish, English, Maths, Biology, Chemistry, French, Music, Art.

When did you complete your Leaving Cert?
2013.

Did you have a part-time job after school?
No.

Did you play sport when you were in school?
Yes; hockey, basketball, gaelic football, tennis, athletics.

Did you go to college? What college did you attend?
Yes; University College Cork (Bachelors), Bournemouth University (Masters).

What college course did you study?
Computer Science (Bachelors), COmputer Animations and Visual Effects (Masters).

Share some details about any industry roles you have had in your lifetime.

I've worked as a Software Engineer and as a Site Reliability Engineer.

What skills you have developed over the years?

Programming, communications skills, presentation skills, graphics engineering, problem-solving.

What is your current role?

Senior Site Reliability Engineer.

Why would you recommend a career in your industry?

Site Reliability Engineers work together to make the internet a more reliable place for its billions of users. And that number is only growing.

